

EYFS and KS1 parents

We know there are lots of you who are participating in the daily phonics sessions and now to help further this site has some fabulous free resources to support children's phonics at home.

It follows the same structure that they are used to at school and we think it is extremely useful!

Phonics eBooks is now available on Oxford Owl for Home, to support children with their Read Write Inc. Phonics learning from home. The eBooks include fun, decodable stories as well as top tips and guidance notes for parents.

Take a look at these and more free resources here:
